TRYING TO GIVE WORK

Mayor Denny and Others Talk to the Unemployed.

Efforts That Are Being Made to Help Them-Action Concerning the Encampment Balance.

Mayor Denny discussed the problem of the unemployed at the Criminal Court room last night. The meeting, which had been called to take up the courthouse improvement, was not as large as had been anticipated. It was expected that the County Commissioners would be present, but the committee delegated to invite the gentlemen failed to find them. Messrs. Kramer and Meyer, of the Board of Public Works, were present and aided the Mayor in explaining the condition of affairs. Mr. Denny thought that the commissioners had changed their minds in regard to cutting down the courthouse yard, but stated that he believed the body intended doing something for the unemployed. He said they proposed to establish yards for the purpose of breaking stone and had agreed to furnish the city all the crushed stone it could use and would wait until May 15 for the payment of the same. During the course of his remarks the Mayor drifted upon the $12,000 held by the Commercial Club as a part of the money subscribed by the City Council to the encampment fund. Together with the city attorney he had spent many hours in conference with the club's attorneys. It had been the endeavor all along, he said, to secure control of the funds without a lawsuit, but he could hold out little hope. Litigation would not help the unemployed laboring men, and, in fact, there was little hope that the money could now be employed with any immediate benefit even if it should be deermined that it belonged to the city. The Mayor was of the opinion that the ex-city attorney was responsible for the puzzling condition of the funds. He had drafted an ordinance which gave $75,000 to the Commercial Club. By the terms of the ordinance the appropriation was absolute and without a saving clause. The Mayor an-nounced that on Monday night the city attorney would make his report concerning plan to be adopted to the City Council. Mr. Denny expressed his sympathy for the men and assured them that they are not alone in their distress. During a recent trip through the East he learned that many of the larger cities are tenfold more embarrassed than Indianapolis.

Mr. Kramer, of the Board of Public Works, regretted exceedingly the depleted condition of the city treasury and the ina-bility to push public work as rapidly as it should be done. He read a list of the work already done this season, and explained why other contemplated improvements could not be made. The Fall-creek work would cost nearly $70,000, which was out of the question. The construction of the Bell-

Mr. Meyer, in a brief talk, encouraged the unemployed men present and promised that in a few weeks there would be an abundance of work for all. The question of granting contracts to firms who would only employ home labor was broached, and the members of the board were asked to insist that all foreign contractors carry out their work with the aid of Indianapolis laboring men. To this effect a resolution was adopted, prepared by C. A. Johnson. The courthouse yard excavation was agitated by the meeting, and it was decided to circulate a petition among the citizens requesting the County Commissioners to authorize the work to be done without delay. A resolution requesting citizens to assign their pro rata share of the surplus of the encampment fund to the city and the using of the same for public improvements was introduced and adopted. C. A. Johnson, who introduced the resolution, spoke in its sup-port. James Deery and D. F. Kennedy opposed it, while Judge Stubbs warmly champloned it. Among other things, the Judge said that no one had claimed that this sur-plus belonged to the Commercial Club committee. The question seemed to be one simply of title. The committee held that it could not may the money over to the city, as it feared that some private subscriber would come in and bring suit for his share. This would never happen. The money must con-sequently either belong to the city or to the public-spirited citizens who subscribed to the fund (and Judge Stubbs was sure that nine-tenths of them would be too glad to see this fund go where it could do so much good.) If, therefore, the citizens assigned their rights in the premises to the city there can be no longer any question of title, and he thought the committee, as honorable men, would then turn over the money with-out legal action being necessary.

Two years ago Skiles was arrested this county on a swindling charge, and was sent to jail in default of bond. While awaiting the action of the grand jury he cultivated the night turnkey to such an extent that the official accorded him singular privileges. It was the custom of the prisoner's wife with a lady friend to call at the fail each evening and engage the turnkey and prisoner in a game of cards. These games had not progressed far until the time was ripe for a move on the part of the crafty Skiles, and one night he made his escape while his wife and her lady friend were mildly contesting the result of a game with the turnkey. The fugitive was seen no more here, but shortly afterward got into trouble in the Northwest.

Reception to Implement Men. The home of Mr. J. H. Snyder, of No. 390

Bellefonta e street, was the scene of a reception last night. Mr. Snyder had extended informal invitations to the men engaged in the agricultural implement business throughout the city and the State. About fifty accepted the invitations, in company with their wives. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers. The Misses Scotton rendered several songs and Miss Ollie Van Camp gave a piano selection. The guests then sought entertainment in dancing, card playing and a general sociable time. Lunch was served at 10:30 o'clock, after which toasts were offered by several men promi-Boyd was toastmaster. The following toasts were offered: "Our Wives." Orange Peddlers Arrested.

Four street peddlers handling oranges were arrested yesterday for violating the license laws. The particular point violated is that which says the men shall keep moving continually and not confine their route to one particular part of the street. The officers making the arrests say that the offenders never left Washington street from between Tennessee street to Alabama street from the time they appeared in the morning until they ceased seiling in the evening. This has been the occasion of much trouble to Superintendent Powell, but he has and will insist that all ordinances shall be

Fish Dynamiters Arrested.

Three men were arrested near Martinsville, Friday night, for killing fish in White river by the use of dynamite. The practice of dynamiting has been going on for some time unmolested in all parts of the river from Broad Ripple to Martinsville. The Journal a few days ago called the attention of the authorities to this continued violation of the law. It was learned that the dynamiters were at work near Martinsville, and Deputy Sheriffs James and Joseph Singleton started up White river in search of the violators of the law. A few miles above the city, Friday night, they met three men with a wagon full of fish. The trio was placed under arrest, and are now confined in the Morgan county jail. All claim to be from this city, and one is thought to be

A Runaway Team.

A team belonging to the Citizens' Streetrailroad Company became unmanageable on Mississippi street, yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, and ran southward toward Washington street at a great rate of speed. As they reached Washington street they turned to the West and ran into a buggy belonging to Howard Coltrider, a saloonist on East Washington street. The horses of the company, such was their momentum, were forced directly onto the buggy and crushed it by their weight. Fortunately there was no one injured in the accident.

Independent Ticket Nominated by Commercial Club Members.

Some Effort to Discourage the Movement-The Eight Men Named for Directors.

The call for a meeting of members of the Commercial Club to nominate an independent ticket in opposition to the regular ticket, brought about thirty-five members of the club last night to Assembly room. At 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Col. W. R. Holloway, and W. H. Hobbs was immediately nominated and chosen to preside. Mr. Hobbs said he had not expected to be called upon to preside at the meeting, but would gladly accept the proffered honor. He announced the purpose for which the meeting had been called and defended the purpose to nominate an independent ticket. He said it was the practice in all clubs, whether social, political or commercial, to have more than one ticket in the field, and he thought it proper to create a spirit of friendly rivalry if nothing more. In this case, he said, he thought there were other reasons for nominating an independent ticket, but did not mention what the other reasons were. As he concluded he called for nominations for secretary and E. S. R. Seguin was chosen. Ben A. Eator was recognized by the chair, and said that he thought outside influences had contrived to weaken the esteem and confidence in which the president of the club had been held, and he thought it inadvisable to nominate an independent ticket at this time, and made a motion that none be nominated. Colonel Holloway immediately moved to lay this motion on the table, but failed to meet with a second. The motion of Mr. Eaton was lost, but D. B. Shideler insisted on a division, which but demonstrated the correctness of the chair's decision. Only five votes were cast for Mr. Eaton's motion. Upon motion of Holloway a committee was apto present to the meeting the names to be placed on the independent ticket. Mr. Shideler moved as an amendment that the committee report sixteen names, double the number of directors to be elected. The question was put on Shideler's amendment and lost, but that gentleman again insisted on a division and himself and the person seconding his motion were all that voted in its favor. The chair then appointed Col. W. R. Holoway, Dr. Hewitt, John C. Dean, William tee, and they retired to the committee room. After some deliberation they reported the following names, which will be posted Monday as an independent ticket: James T. Layman, George G. Tanner, W. H. Armstrong, John J. Cooper, N. F. Dal-ton, J. S. Lazarus, J. R. Carnahan and John W. Holtzman. The request to Sec-retary Fortune that the names be posted was signed by Col. W. R. Holloway, C. E. Kershner, J. E. Twiname, William L. O'Connor, James Broden, B. D. Miner, S. C. C. Brunson, Ewald Over, B. E. Parrott, William L. Baker, James T. Eaglesfield, Frank R. Shepard, E. S. R. Seguin, H. L. Hewitt, A. M. Glossbrenner, J. M. THE CORBETT BASEBALL STORY.

President Brush Says There Is Nothing In It-League Rules Committee.

President Brush, of the Cincinnati ball club, said yesterday to a Journal representative that there was absolutely nothing in the report that pugilist Corbett was to play with the Cincinnatis a portion of the coming season. He did not think it within even the bounds of possibility that the world's champion would be found on any of the League club pay rolls this year. Mr. Brush had an idea that the story started from some conversation that talkative Arlie Latham had with Corbett at Boston, and which was seized upon by an enterprising correspondent and spread It is possible that the meeting of the league committee on rules, which was to take place in Cincinnati, to-morrow, may have to be postponed for two or three days owing to Mr. Brush's poor health. President Reach, of the Philadelphia club, will be unable to be there, and Mr. Brush wanted President Von der Ahe, of St. Louis, the third member of the committee, to come here and hold the meeting. The latter, for some inexplicable reason, sistently refuses to accede to this very reasonable request and insists on holding the meeting at Cincinnati. If Mr. Brush's physician thinks it advisable he will go there to-morrow, otherwise the meet-ing will be deferred. The formation of a report for submission to the annual meeting of the League, in New York, Feb. 26, is the object of the meeting, which is of the utmost importance, involving as it does probable changes of several important

Inspector Duvall Digs Up an Old Ordinance and Will Go After Milkmen.

Sanitary Inspector Edwin Duvall has found an ordinance which he thinks will prevent the sale of impure and adulterated milk. The difficulty in the prosecutions under the State law has been the requirement that the State prove guilty knowledge on the part of the offender. The city prosecutor thinks the ordinance is not in conflict with the State law, and it is probable that an arrest will be made within a few days and a test case made. The ordinance is as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any person, by himself or his agent or his servant, or as the servant or agent of any other person, to seil, exchange, or deliver, or have in his custody or possession, with intent to sell or exchange, or expose or offer for sale or exchange, adulterated milk, or milk to which water or any foreign substance has been added, or any milk or butter of in-ferior quality * * or to knowingly connive or assist in the violation of the provisions of this ordinance." . .

WANTS $25,000 DAMAGES. Albert Snyder Sues the Indianapolis Rubber Co. for the Loss of an Arm.

Albert Snyder, by his next friend, John C. Snyder, brought a heavy suit for damages yesterday in the Superior Court against the Indianapolis Rubber Company. Albert Snyder is sixteen years of age, and until injured last December was an employe of the rubber establishment. On Dec. 14, while working at a machine known as the "Callender" he alleges that he received injuries which crippled him for life and which necessitated the amputation of his right arm. To operate the machine it was necessary to heat the rollers to a white heat, and in some way the boy's hand was caught between the rollers. The hand was crushed and cooked, and in order to save the life of the victim it was taken off. The complaint avers that by reason of the short stature of the lad it was unsafe for him to work at the "Callender," a fact well known to his employers. It is further claimed that they made no attempt to warn him of the danger. Twenty-five thousand dollars is asked.

Might Have Been Serious. William Myers, a driver for Kipp Bros., on South Meridian street, was injured in a peculiar manner yesterday afternoon. A Haughville car was passing along west of the river when a loud report was heard. A cartridge had been placed on the track and was exploded by the passing of the car. Myers, who was sitting in his wagon near the scene, was struck in the left eye and also on the hand by fragments. His injuries are not painful, but his indignation is such that he will offer a reward for the perpe-

THE CITY GETS $73.

Small Encampment Fund Balance Paid Over to Controller Trusler.

John W. Murphy yesterday paid over to Controller Trusler $73.03, the balance in his hands due the city from encampment funds. Mr. Fortune gave the following explanation of the source of the money paid over "At the time of the settlement betwee the citizens' executive board, of which Co Lilly is chairman, and the city encamp-ment committee, of which John W. Murphy is chairman, there was paid over to the city encampment committee a total of something over $2,600, which was the balance of the funds then in the hands of Albert Gall, treasurer of the encampment organization. It was explained at the time that there would be a small additional came into the hands of Treasure sum came into the hands of Treasure Gall from sales of office furniture at aud tion. It was stated that the amount wou probably be between $60 and $70. All of the encampment warrants having been paid and the remaining amounts due from sales having been collected the balance in the hands of the treasurer was, some days ago, paid by warrant to Chairman Murphy and Secretary Sahm, of the city committee. The amount was $73.03. This is the final payment. The balance of $12,000 in the hands of the assemblage committee, about which so much has been said, has never been in the hands of Treasurer Gall, and the encampment officials do not regard it as available for the encampment fund any more than the unexpended balance of the city appropriation of $75,000."
